

Financial Reporter – Mining Sector

dealReporter has a vacancy for a senior financial journalist with a track record of breaking news on corporates and/or previously worked in the financial services industry.

The role is with a fast paced news service publishing real time scoops on large cap corporates with a particular focus on the mining sector. The right candidate will thrive on breaking market moving stories in a busy newsroom.

dealReporter's focus is on scooping high profile M&A deals and corporate events as well as providing detailed analysis on the financial health of European large-cap corporates.

Candidates should have experience in financial journalism and should have the ability to make new sources and to pick up technical information. A contact book of M&A or lending sources or European languages would be a plus.

dealReporter is a part of the Financial Times group. dealReporter is a fast paced news service for the hedge funds, prop desks, fixed income investors and ECM desks.
