Investigative M&A reporter

dealReporter, an online news service that is part of the Financial Times Group, is looking to hire a full-time investigative financial reporter. This person will be responsible for working with a global team of journalists to cover mergers and acquisitions, significant business events and capital markets, with a particular focus on either pharmaceutical or industrial companies.

The right candidate will be hungry to produce exclusive stories in this hyper competitive, tight lipped area of financial news. This candidate will have strong writing and interpersonal skills and reporting experience at a financial news service, newspaper or online publication. Knowledge of corporate finance as well as a full rolodex of sources is strongly preferred.

Located in the Flatiron District of Manhattan, dealReporter has an entrepreneurial, nonpretentious office that offers flexibility and room for growth. Samples of dealReporter stories can be found at:
